

Graphic Designer for NewTek, Inc.
January 24, 2018

Are you a talented, enthusiastic, and highly creative graphic designer looking to make your mark in the world? Are you a motivated self-starter who loves the creative process and seeking fresh visual solutions? Are you looking for a position with a tech leader, where your visual skills will be utilized for a wide range of marketing communications—and shown around the globe? If this sounds like you – and you’re looking for a design position with an exciting company that is at the center of revolutionizing the video industry – NewTek wants to hear from you.

NewTek is transforming the way people create and distribute video content. From sporting events, talk shows, live entertainment, corporate webinars, and newscasts – to virtually any venue where people want to capture and publish live video, we empower people to grow their audiences, brands and businesses faster than ever before.

We are seeking a junior to mid-level digital graphic designer for our internal creative team at our San Antonio headquarters. The right candidate will be one who thrives in a fast-paced, collaborative environment, and who values creativity and flawless execution.

We offer a competitive salary, a strong benefits package, and growth potential with a financially-solid firm. We have a casual work environment and are located in San Antonio, Texas, a great city in which to work and live. Special consideration will be given to candidates from the local area.
